THE RAYMOND LION

Clifford A. Palmer, optometrist of Lethbridge, has just completed his survey of eye-sight in the Elementary School of Raymond. The Lions Club arranges with Mr. Palmer to make an eye examination for every student at least three times during his school career—twice in Elementary School and once in High School. In addition, special attention is given every year to any students reported by a teacher, who has observed apparent defectiveness.

This is a preliminary examination—any student showing irregularities is to be re-checked. The parents of each student requiring further testing receives a letter stating the apparent trouble. Then they are advised to take the child to the family optometrist for complete examination and fitting for glasses when necessary.

This recent survey shows that 69 students need attention—much of this has already been done. Parents who have no means of transportation are advised to get in touch with L. L. Harker. The Lions Club will conduct a caravan to Lethbridge for those who find it difficult to take care of the trip. We will take the children over on Wednesday afternoon and the whole time will be reserved for the group. We keep them right at the office and bring them home immediately.

The Lions Club will make arrangements to back your credit if you find it difficult to pay for the service now. We have purchased glasses for a few children whose parents were not able to pay for the service required.

Mr. Hicken at the Public School is giving a lot of time checking and arranging for these tests. Visit the school and talk with him about your child who seems to require further consideration. Mr. Hicken is giving the Lions Club full co-operation in this project. Discuss your problems with him.

The Lions Club held their Thirtieth Annual Charter Night celebration in the Second Ward Hall, Monday, March 24th. There were nearly one hundred present to enjoy a delicious dinner served by Mary Thompson and Flo McKean.

A very outstanding program was arranged by the Committee, Arledge Hill, Rayo Woolf and Melvin King. Two little daughters of Dean Bennett of Magrath delighted the crowd with two lovely dance numbers. Babe Harris brought his family and Irene Harris gave several delightful dialect numbers and Billy Premachuk played three charming numbers on his piano accordion. Gen Hawkins, Laura Watson and Velma Bigelow sang two pleasing numbers. Darwin Oler gave a novelty song—he was all dolled up as a rooster, after which Joe McLean and Joe Strong sang a sentimental love song—Strong makes a very muscular chorus girl. He had all the curves—I guess. Ted Hinman, School Inspector from Cardston was Guest Speaker of the evening. Mr. Hinman is a loyal Lion and a loyal Canadian. His address combined Canadian history and tradition with economic development. His delivery is pleasing and the whole speech would make any Canadian proud to be part of it all. Well done Ted!

A Membership Tea will be held on Saturday, April 12, in the Legion Hall from 3 until 6 p.m. for the purpose of increasing interest and membership in the newly formed Raymond Municipal Hospital Auxiliary.

Another Letter From Mr. Anderson

Editor, Raymond Recorder
Dear Sir:

I would like to enquire as to whose brains were used on the Town Council when they decided to push the excess snow from sides of main street to the centre?

It must be the same wise men who were responsible for the water spout in the centre of our city. Certainly, there is a lack of foresight on the part of those responsible.

Seems to me I recall someone on the Council last year requesting citizens to clean up and paint up. Does it make sense when they, the council display about as much common sense as a small school boy?

All you have to do is drive into town ladies and gentlemen to see what a mess the two blocks in the business section is in and has been in. Mud, water and bad ho'es. Much worse than we have on any of the lanes on our farms. When the huge pile of snow which the employees of the town hauled to the centre thawed what a mess!

It seems to me that we should organize a Town Planning Committee. (Oh yes, the town has one. But who would know it?) They would make suggestions to the brainless ones, to not only save taxpayers money, but to put the taxpayers money into constructive use.

I wrote about the cow town water spout. Do you know what their answer was to that? It would really (continued on page four)

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leavitt of Blairmore were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gil Evans recently for the week-end.

Cemetery Board To Sponsor Concert

Again this year the Temple Hill Cemetery Board is sponsoring a Concert and Treasure Chest to raise the vitally needed funds to carry on the good work of beautifying the resting place of so many loved ones. As usual the program will be top notch and the Treasure Chest will again be worth over $200. Give your support to this excellent project. The Concert takes place on Saturday, April 19, at which time some lucky person will carry off the numerous and valuable prizes donated by local businessmen.

Mrs. Pat Kirkham of Blairmore visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Mike Holland over the week-end.

Piano Students Hold Recital

Mothers fathers and friends turned out last Wednesday evening to hear the Recital given by Margaret Bridges piano students. It was presented in the Second Ward hall under the auspices of the Primary with Alice Powelson Master of Ceremonies.

Those participating were: Penny Vincent, Allie Dee Vincent, Valerie Powelson, Craig Hergel, Suzanne Wood, Rodney Bridge, Jimmy Fisher, Rita Powelson, Bert Piegrass, Marilyn Ralph, Doreen Ralph, Heber Jones, Raymond Vincent, Shirli Hergel, Freddie Wilde, Richard Jacob, Phyllis Salmon, Marlene Wilde, Marcia Jones, Ruth Gehmlich, Jimmy Walker, Carol Holmes and Marolyn Bacon.

Variety was added by two vocal numbers rendered by Carma Woolley singing 'Charmaine' and Margaret Stone, Ladine McBride and Dawn Mendenhall singing 'Stars Are The Windows of Heaven'.

A Sunday Night Study Class met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walker this week with an interesting lesson being presented by Gordon Stone.

After much discussion of the topic, a delicious lunch was served.

Snaps and Scraps The Family Council

To bring together in a harmonious pattern the personal traits and desires of its members, and the group needs of the family, the 'family council' has been devised.

The chief function of the family council is to discuss matters of common family interest, and to agree upon things to be done. It is based upon the thought that here is a group in which each member has rights, responsibilities and privileges, but which must act in certain matters, as a body. It gathers up all relevant data about a family problem, thus providing wider knowledge and more sound judgement than would be possible if only one or two in the family made decisions. Its function socially is to safeguard the existence of the group and the rights of everyone in it; its significance as an aid to better living lies in the feeling of security the members of the family get from this unity.

United Church W. A. Pleased With Pantry Sale Results

The United Church W. A. wish to thank everyone who helped to make their Spring Tea and Bazaar the success it was.

It was held Saturday March 22 in the Legion Hall under the direction of the President Mrs. Karl Wilde.

Mrs. F. Ball acted as receptionist, while Mrs. Dahl poured tea. Mrs. J. Hellawell handled the sale of tickets and Mrs. McKean and Mrs. T. Allen were in charge of the Pantry Table. The sale of Handwork was handled by Mrs. G. Magee and Mrs. G. Swedish.

Tea Tables were served by Mrs. McMahon, Mrs. Lund and Mrs. McMann.

Mrs. Helgersen was Convenor of the lunches assisted by Mesdames Dainard, Veen, Attwood and Grant.

Quick Thinking Averts Serious Fire

An oil heater almost caused serious damage at the home of Mrs. Anne Larsen this week when the stove, which had developed a small leak, caught fire. The damage was held to a minimum due to the quick thinking and acting of Duke Helgersen who grabbed a coat from a hook and threw the heater out into the yard.

The local Fire Brigade responded with its usual promptness but arrived only to help restore things to order. Fifteen minutes after the alarm was turned in things around the Larsen home were back to normal with the exception of a great deal of greasy smoke damage and the burns that Mr. Helgersen suffered on his hands. Both have received treatment and are on the way to getting back in the everyday swing of things again.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Ruphus Sherwood of Cardston announce the engagement of their daughter Lola to Bob Litchfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reid Litchfield.

The marriage will take place in the Alberta Temple on April 30th.

Relief Societies Celebrate Anniversary

The Relief Society members of the Four Wards and their husbands thoroughly enjoyed the annual Seventeenth of March Celebration.

The large gathering was served a delicious plate lunch at 7:30 after which Mrs. Aziel Stevenson gave an address of welcome and announced the following program:

Piano Duet by Opal Wiggel and Ethel Tolstrup; Talk by Inez Hicken on the Relief Society; Trio by Gen Hawkins, Laura Watson and Velma Bigelow; a Skit by the Second Ward; Trumpet Solo by Dick Erickson; Reading by Hortense Hirsche of Stirling; Solo by Jeanine Jensen; Skit by the Fourth Ward and a Duet by Nora Stone and Hazel Fawns and the concluding number, a Trumpet duet by Jim and David Hudson.

The gala evening was concluded with dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rhea and son Martin of Macleod were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Mendenhall on Sunday.

Newly Weds To Reside In Salt Lake City

The Cardston Temple was the scene of a recent wedding when LaDon Meldrum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Meldrum, and Dietrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Gehmlich, exchanged vows in the presence of a large group of friends and relatives with President L. D. Cahoon performing the ceremony.

A reception was held in the Stake House with over four hundred guests present. The bride wore a full length white gown fashioned with a net bodice, long sleeves and a gathered satin skirt which was caught up at the hemline revealing tiers of lace. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a dainty beaded tiara and she carried a bouquet of lilies and yellow carnations.

Her attendants were Colleen Mitchell as Maid of Honor, gowned in pink with a bouquet of pink carnations; and Geraldine Kenney and Nadine Meldrum in blue and yellow respectively and each carrying a dainty nosegay.

The groom was attended by his brother Robert, Philip Redd and Deloy Meldrum.

For the happy occasion the bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of cocoa brown with a gardenia corsage while Mrs. Gehmlich chose one of navy, also with a gardenia corsage.

Guests were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Ira McBride and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Holmes. Dolores Scoville, Norma Meldrum, Patricia Mitchell and Alice Wilde received and displayed the numerous lovely gifts, while Anita McBride presided at the Guest Book.

The guests were then greeted by the bridal couple, their parents, and attendants in the prettily decorated Relief Society Room. Retta Walton and Lisbeth Snow then invited the guests to the Recreation Hall where they were served a dainty lunch by Ruth Gibb, Martha Woolley, Hazel Meldrum, Lois Milner, June Woodhead, LaDean McBride, Connie Mehew Mary Snow, Edna Kubota, Joy Litchfield, Mary Winkler and Grace Selman.

The Bridal Party were seated under an arch of fern and daffodils to enjoy the program for which Bishop J. Golden Snow was Master of Ceremonies. Geraldine Duell sang a solo, 'Oh Promise Me' followed by a reading 'Advice to The Newlyweds' by Betty Evans. 'Always' sung by Ruth Salmon preceded two numbers by the Frank Taylor Quartette. Herb Bishop then rendered a piano solo; Grace Selman a vocal solo and Lucy Stevens an original reading based on the lives of LaDon and Deter. Robert Gehmlich sang 'My Wonderful One' and Don Petrak and company gave two musical numbers. Paul Redd then gave the Toast to the Bride, to which the groom responded. 'Roses of Picardy' by Geraldine Duell concluded the program.

The decorations carried out the color scheme, yellow and white, suggested by the bride's bouquet. The lovely three tiered wedding cake was displayed flanked with tapers on either side.

Out of town guests were from Lethbridge, Picture Butte, Magrath, Taber, Stirling, Welling and Lousana, Alta. Mr. and Mrs. Gehmlich will make their home in Salt Lake City where Mrs. Litchfield, together with Mr. and they both attend University of Utah.

Mrs. Fanny Litchfield and Terry Smith spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. Elia Mercer, in Darnwell.

Chips From The Scout Log First Raymond Troop

Tuesday night, instead of the regular Scout meeting, the boys enjoyed a very fine lecture by a former member of the RCMP and Hudson Bay fur trader. He told about northern dress, Eskimos and Indians of the north, the ice break-up in the Spring, flying conditions in that country, caribou migrations, dog teams, etc.

Field Commissioner Len Ankers was unable to visit the Troop as planned because of a meeting in Lethbridge concerning the Annual Boy Scout Ice Stampede.

The boys haven't, as yet, had their instruction from the RCMP on traffic, highways, etc. Constable Anderson of the Force is coming to Raymond next Tuesday night to talk to the Troop on these subjects.

The Troop, on the whole, is progressing very well, and it won't be too long before every boy has been invested. Hugh Hague, Don Longbotham and Richard Still will soon have their Tenderfoot work completed and be ready for Investiture.

Trophy Competition

The second period of competition is over and the trophy goes back to the crafty Fox Patrol who have been spurred on to victory by their leader, Gordon Tychem. Here's how they finished, by patrols—Fox, Wolf, Beaver, Stag. The race was very close between the Foxes and Wolves until the last two weeks when the Foxes out-scored the Wolves by nearly 800 points.

The Trophy will be presented on our big Game Day, Saturday, April 26th. Other events to take place that day are: Achievement Crest will be mounted on Troop Flag; Arthur Hudson will receive his King Scout Badge; a big feed will be cooked by the Beavers and enjoyed by all; the Stags get to wash the dishes and clean up afterward.

Future Activities

Don't forget that Friday is knot day. Bring standard ropes and let's learn all the knots.

An eight-troop Camporee is scheduled for May 24th at the Pot Hole, just east of Magrath. The boys will go out and set up camp Friday night. Saturday will be spent in games, pioneering, displays and passing tests, with the fascinating Council Fire at night. Let's go out there and show the other troops how Scouting really works.

Don't forget, this coming Tuesday is the visit of Constable Anderson of the RCMP.

Do a good turn daily!

Mrs. Lorraine Platt Frazer of Nan-ton was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Smith recently for a few days.

Harold Stevens has been a patient in the local hospital this week.

Wednesday, March 26th, was the date of the 28th Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Litchfield and to celebrate the happy occasion their home in Salt Lake City where Mrs. Litchfield, together with Mr. and Mrs. John Smith and son Terry, went out to Wolf Creek Colony where Mr. Litchfield is teaching school. Young Mr. Smith spent the week-end out there with his grandparents.

BOYS AND GIRLS WEEK

WHEREAS, the future depends, to a great extent, upon our service to youth today; and

WHEREAS, many communities throughout the world which recognize the need for focusing attention on youth's problems and achievements are joining together to observe "Boys and Girls Week" from April 26 to May 3; and

WHEREAS, each day of this week emphasizes a subject of importance to the development of youth of our community—Citizenship Day, April 26; Day in Church, April 27; Day in School, April 28; Family Day, April 29; Careers Day, April 30; Health and Safety Day, May 1; Day of International Understanding, May 2; and Day of Recreation, May 3; and

WHEREAS, the development of an active program for each of these days will give our boys and girls practical experience in "LEARNING TO SERVE";

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frank R. Taylor, Mayor of the Town of Raymond, do hereby proclaim the week beginning Saturday, April 26, and ending Saturday, May 3, 1952, as "BOYS AND GIRLS WEEK".

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Town of Raymond to be hereto affixed this 19th day of March, 1952.

(SEAL)

"FRANK R. TAYLOR"

BECAUSE

the value of the farm WITH electrification is increased in value BY MORE THAN DOUBLE the cost of getting the power, including the construction costs and building wiring costs.

The best method of carrying out farm electrification is the Rural Electrification Co-Operative Association way. Under this plan the farmers who are concerned make the decisions themselves. Also the farmers in co-operation with each other and in co-operation with those who carry out the actual construction work can assist materially in keeping construction charges to a minimum.

New Books

Barabbas by Par Lagerkvist—who is the new winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature. This book is translated from Swedish and is the story of Barabbas, the man for whom Christ died. Barabbas was a notorious robber and murderer, brought to trial by the Romans and condemned to death. With Barabbas awaited a little known Rabbi also condemned to death the people were asked to make their choice between the two; they chose Barabbas, the thief and murderer, and the Rabbi hung on the cross.

Spark of Life by Erich Maria Remarque—There will be many readers who do not care for this new novel by the same author of 'All Quiet On The Western Front'. While to others he is a master novelist. The new book is the story of men in a concentration camp. The author says of his book 'My purpose has been to show the survival of the human spirit under such conditions.'

Adventure In Two Worlds by Dr. A. J. Cronin—An Autobiography

My Cousin Rachel by Daphne du Maurier—This author needs no introduction to her readers. The publishers spent $20,000 advertising 'My Cousin Rachel' in advance of publication. It is the Literary Guild Book for March and has already been sold to the movies.

ANOTHER LETTER

make you laugh. It reminds me of the old couple who decided to use old "Dobbin" in preference to an automobile, although they had money to buy a car.

So ladies and gentlemen if you want to know what the council thinks about the snow in the middle of the street, just ask one. If you don't get a double barrel full of ifs, and don't, can't, we tried that, it wouldn't work, then I miss my guess. Save your breath brother, you might wake them up.

These same town officials will have the nerve to ask you Mr. Citizen to clean up next summer, and they won't even blush about it.

What leadership!

Yours truly,

John J. Anderson
